GUNNISON RESIDENT WINS MUSIC COMPETITION

MISSOULA, Mont. --

Mika Inouye Lambert, a student at The University of Montana-Missoula from Gunnison, is a winner of the UM music department's annual Concerto/Aria Competition. A win in the competition, held each spring, gives music majors the opportunity to perform in concert backed by a full orchestra.

Lambert, a graduate student in piano performance, is a collaborative pianist and music teacher at UM's Children's Learning Center. She earned her bachelor's degree in piano performance and pedagogy in 2001 from Brigham Young University.

Lambert is a 1994 graduate of Gunnison Valley High School. Her parents are Dwight and Jeannie Inouye of Gunnison.
